

Name _____

► Underline the complete verb in each sentence. Write past tense or future tense to identify the tense of each verb.

- The photographer worked all day. past tense
- She used her best camera. past tense
- At sunset, the light faded away. past tense
- The photographs will be pretty. future tense
- She rowed the boat to shore. past tense
- The assistant viewed the images on the computer. past tense
- He will choose the best ones. future tense
- They shouted with happiness. past tense
- The editor at the newspaper will like your pictures. future tense
- He will pay for them. future tense

► Rewrite each sentence, using the correct form of the verb in parentheses ().

- Mango trees _____ in the orchard. (grow–past tense)
Mango trees grew in the orchard.
- The leaves _____ reddish. (look–past tense)
The leaves looked reddish.
- Each mango fruit _____ a single seed. (contain–past tense)
Each mango fruit contained a single seed.
- Mango flowers _____ in the spring or summer. (appear–future tense)
Mango flowers will appear in the spring or summer.
- The fruit _____ about one pound. (weigh–future tense)
The fruit will weigh about one pound.